Rock Small Groups connect, belong, grow

What is a Small Group?

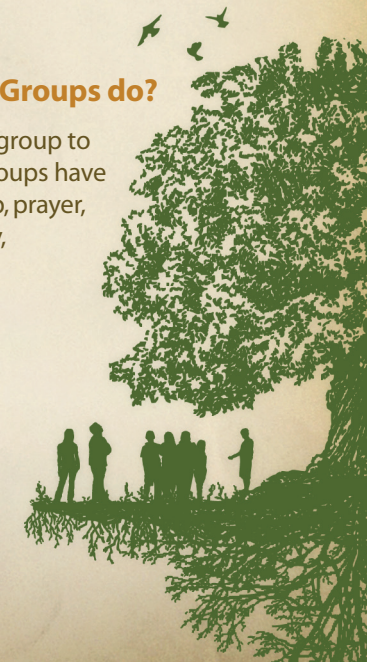

A small group is typically made up of six to twelve people who meet regularly during the week to share about their lives, support one another, and study Biblical truths.

Why should I attend a Small Group?

Small groups at the Rock exist to help you grow to full maturity in your relationship with God and others.

What do Small Groups do?

This can vary from group to group, but most groups have a time of fellowship, prayer, Bible or book study, discussion, and life application.
