Walk up and down the "Self-Help" or "Spiritual" section in any bookstore and you'll see lots of theories from authors answering the question, what is the key to our joy? You'll see books offering insights on having more money, or a better sex life, or a more sculpted body, or better health, or knowledge, or confidence, or self respect and self love.

I don't have a problem with any of them by themselves. I do have a problem if they are characterized as central to our existence. I can categorically tell you they are not—not even close. As you might expect, the Bible takes a very different position than you'll find at the local bookstore. Here is the Bible's unvarnished, often much-maligned assertion. The key to your joy resides in fear.

Read Pastor Mickey's life-changing devotional on the Fear of the Lord, found in Proverbs 1:7-8

SPIRITUAL PARENTING

Spiritual parenting is not perfect parenting - it's parenting from a spiritual perspective. The end goal is to pass on a vibrant and transforming faith, not just raise kids with good behavior.

Join us for this 6 week class beginning Tuesday, January 17. Classes will meet each Tuesday night in Room 235.

The cost of the class is $20 per family and covers the cost of the materials.
