Most of us feel forty hours is a pretty significant chunk of time and effort to take away from our lives and give to our jobs. We could be doing so many other things with that time and energy. Go to the beach. Sleep. Exercise. Read. Watch TV. Play. Hang with friends.

Jacob Cervantes gives forty hours a week to the Rock Church when he could be doing other things.

The fascinating thing about Jacob is that he's a 16-year-old full time high school student.

And he does it for free.
