Q. Did you attend camp when you were a student?

A. I accepted Christ at a camp. I went from knowing who God was to actually knowing God. I am a pastor today because of my camp experience.

Q. Why are you so passionate about camp?

A. To some degree, I am in a battle with all the things in my student's lives that distract them from hearing God's voice, like cell phones, video games and TV. In the mountains, they get to live apart from that for three days.

Q. So you must notice a physical change in the kids?

A. As soon as they walk off the bus! At camp, without all their media, they can finally breathe.

Q. What would you say to parents whose kids won't know anybody at camp?

A. Don't let it stop you. Kids connect at camp more easily than anywhere else in their lives. Life long friendships are made.

Q. What's the best part of camp?

A. God speaks loudly. Kids desperately need a camp experience. Oh, and there's a mud pit.
