WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT OUTREACH

"I couldn't stop the tears from falling. I thank God for Never Knew a Father's Love showing up for us with groceries, bill money, help. I was so desperate for help." -MOTHER OF 2

"Jesus was all about love in action. He didn't just talk about plans and say things like "maybe some day". When I see a volunteer come up to a booth wanting to serve, I see Jesus' call in that person's life. But more importantly, I see that person answering the call by taking action. God will not only reward those who take action, but He will use that person to impact the world around us." -JACK

"Every time I see Isaiah with his Big Brother, mentor, I'm so grateful to Never Knew a Father's Love for making it happen. Isaiah needed that male influence." -SUSAN

"Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you." Luke 6:38 -ELDERLY MINISTRY

"As the new leader of the Teen Moms' Ministry, I have prayed that God would send people with a passion for young mothers for a few months now. I have complete faith that God will bring those that He can use in our ministry, and a volunteer sheet filled with willing people's names will be tangible evidence of an answered prayer and God's continued faithfulness." -JANA

GOD IN THE MAIL BOX

The weed-covered yard just outside Danna Rapacilo's back window was a constant reminder that her husband was far, far away. Except for the weeds, the yard was empty—like her heart as she waited for him to return from his deployment to the other side of the world—but it was still months away.

One day, an envelope arrived from a Rock ministry called Hope Sent. In it was just a card and simple message of care for Danna, but it shook her to the core. "Somebody cares!" she thought, surprised by her own exhilaration. "I think I must have started to believe that I had been forgotten."

Hope Sent was started by Shannon Wasser who had been asking God to give her a ministry idea. One day she was talking to a woman who was grieving the loss of her husband. That afternoon Shannon wrote her a card, addressed it and set it before her to remind her to mail it. Later, she noticed it sitting there, the neat, pretty corners of the white envelope, the texture of the parchment, the happy look of her own handwriting spelling the woman's name. Suddenly she had her idea for a ministry.

Hope Sent sends people who are struggling in any way a colorful card, hopeful scripture and a sentiment from someone who cares and is praying for them. "Lest anybody think we are simply a card-sending ministry, we are not," says Shannon. "We are sending a card that represents lots of prayer and we seek the Holy Spirit as to what to say, which scripture to include and which person in our ministry should write it. They're simple cards but they have lots behind them."

As for Danna, a weed-covered yard is no longer the first thing she sees when she looks out the back window, it's the card she received from Hope Sent. "I love it," says Danna. "I wonder if they know how much it means to me." Connect with Hope Sent at sdrock.com/ministries/hopesent
