The Mission of the Rock Church is to Save, Equip and Send.

Miles McPherson, a former defensive back with the San Diego Chargers, is the Senior Pastor of Rock Church and founder of DoSomethingChurch.org - a vibrant affiliation dedicated to establishing Pervasive Hope in their communities through proactive community service. Rock Church is one of the largest churches in the US and home to over 140 outreach ministries. Rock Church hosts 15 services every weekend, with a weekly attendance of over 15,000 people at their three locations in San Diego County. In 2012, Rock Church members donated 233,712 hours of community service to the county of San Diego - a $4 million value. Last year, Rock Church expanded to include a campus in east San Diego county and continues on with God's work to reach every street and every person for Jesus.

A typical Sunday at Rock Church in Point Loma can mean getting lost in a sea of thousands of people, which for some is welcomed. For others, however, they desire a more intimate experience where they can connect with others.

Enter the Rock Church microsite location in Coronado: Proteus Gym. From the outside, Proteus Gym blends in with the other businesses that surround it, but once you walk inside, families and friends make the weights and workout apparatuses disappear.

"Not so long ago," shares Jeff Bramstedt, former Navy SEAL and Coronado microsite attendee, "my friends, Brian Tucker and Juan "Gonzo" Gonzalez opened a gym in Coronado. They had the goal of reaching out to young men who have the desire to be in the US Navy SEAL Teams and giving families an alternative to the average gym membership."

Adds Bramstedt, "It was no surprise to me when Juan and Brian told me of the plan to open a Rock Church Microsite at the gym. Many of the gym's patrons now come to the gym on Sunday, but for a different kind of work out."
