STORY

BY KELLY JOHNSON WITH DAVE FRANCO

Something To Hold On To

Kelly Johnson tells how her trauma—as a little girl—is being used to touch lives today.

Kelly Johnson walked through the Women’s Christmas Marketplace event looking at all the tables with Christmas gifts and Christmassy decorations—deep red, green, and gold—in every direction. She loved it. She noticed candles for sale, bracelets, soaps, and every manner of Tchotchke laying out to attract buyers. Then she came upon a table with dolls. She took one in her hand, breathed deeply and smiled.

She was feeling so happy these days, so glad-hearted to have made the Rock her new church and so joyful to know God had proven to be so faithful, just like He said. He had saved her from so much.

In fact, if there was ever anybody who could have expected to live out a desperate existence, it would be Kelly, who’s home life was a slow-rolling disaster. Her parents valued church and took the family regularly, but the interior did not match the exterior. The house was filled with bitter fighting, and...

Why We Give?

God is the ultimate giver who gave the most precious gift imaginable, His Son, Jesus, to die on the cross for our sins. Our lives are transformed by the gospel of Christ, and the act of giving changes us, making us more like our generous Creator.
