

FEATURED STORY

BY ANDRIECE WITH DAVE FRANCO

Best Christmas Ever

Andriece's reason for joining the Prison Ministry was to help others, or so she thought

When I was 13, my dad, who moved a half-hour away, was going to be at the house for Christmas. I couldn't remember a Christmas with dad actually home and this was going to be my best Christmas ever. Everything came together like a dream: it snowed like crazy in Lake Tahoe that day, Christmas music played, the smell of turkey filled the air, and my dad was coming home to be with me.

Sure enough dad came through the doors, like a hero from the cold. He held me close and gave me a Christmas present. But there was something wrong. He didn't seem happy. Dad's downcast demeanor...
