

FEATURED STORY

BY JOHN NASSHAN

PARADISE ~~LOST~~ FOUND

A chaplain at the Paradise fires gives an account of God at work in a living hell

The stories from the people of Paradise, California that I ministered to were mostly of a similar devastation—the loss of everything due to the greatest, most destructive wildfire in state history. One tale was from a man who begged his neighbors to get in the car, but instead watched him go back in his house for a belonging. He never made it out. One gentleman lost his home, his neighbors and his employment since the local business burned down as well. Although these people had their lives, families and pets, an emptiness was in their eyes.

The Point of Distribution (POD) offered food, clothing and incidentals such as linens, hygiene items, diapers, etc. It was here in this parking lot that the CRI organization wished to roll out their newly procured Hope Trailer, a mobile sound stage that could assemble a worship team in less than an hour. The Hope Trailer made its debut in this parking lot and many said when the worship music launched, the mood changed from despair to optimism. But the enemy would have no such thing...
