

BY IVORY WILSON WITH DAVE FRANCO

THE POWER OF NO JUDGMENT

One woman fighting with debt finds a shocking response to her overspending.

Paying off debt is possible. Trust me, I know. I was thousands of dollars in debt. I tried to pay off my debt. I had the desire, but none of my strategies worked. For over ten years, I tried, while living a comfortable life in North Carolina - car paid off, low rent, and high income. But then God placed me in the environment I needed to get out of debt: San Diego.

In moving to San Diego, I had to buy a car, my rent was doubled, the cost of living was substantially higher, and my income was significantly lower. Doesn't exactly sound like a formula for getting out of debt, does it? I thought the same thing.

I signed up for the RFL (Rock Financial Life) class, hoping to learn a few tips in money management. What I didn't expect, was that a mere 16 months after starting the class, I would be debt free!

Naturally a private person, I liked the idea of taking...
