

SENIOR PASTOR, ROCK CHURCH

Miles McPherson

A former defensive back with the San Diego Chargers, Miles is the Senior Pastor of Rock Church and author of The Third Option: Hope for a Racially Divided Nation, which explains that we must learn to see people not by the color of their skin but as God sees them—humans created in the image of God. Pastor Miles is also the founder of DoSomethingChurch.org, a vibrant affiliation dedicated to establishing pervasive hope in communities through proactive community service.

FEATURED STORY

WHAT GOOD ARE YOU?

A hospital chaplain gets an unexpected answer and it changes his life.

BY NEAL NYBO WITH DAVE FRANCO

I awoke to my pager. I looked at the time; it was 6:50 am. A young high school senior who fell off of his surfboard and onto his head that morning was about to be helicoptered to UCLA Medical Center, where I was an on-call intern chaplain. I was to get there as fast as I could.

So I fired out of bed, got dressed, and raced to UCLA where I found that I arrived at the same time the boy was descending the elevators from the heliport on the roof. It also happened to be the same time his dad arrived. His father, who, I would come to find out, was a neck and spine surgeon. He burst through the doors, all 6'7" of him, with a furled brow and a look of intent. He was mine to deal with.

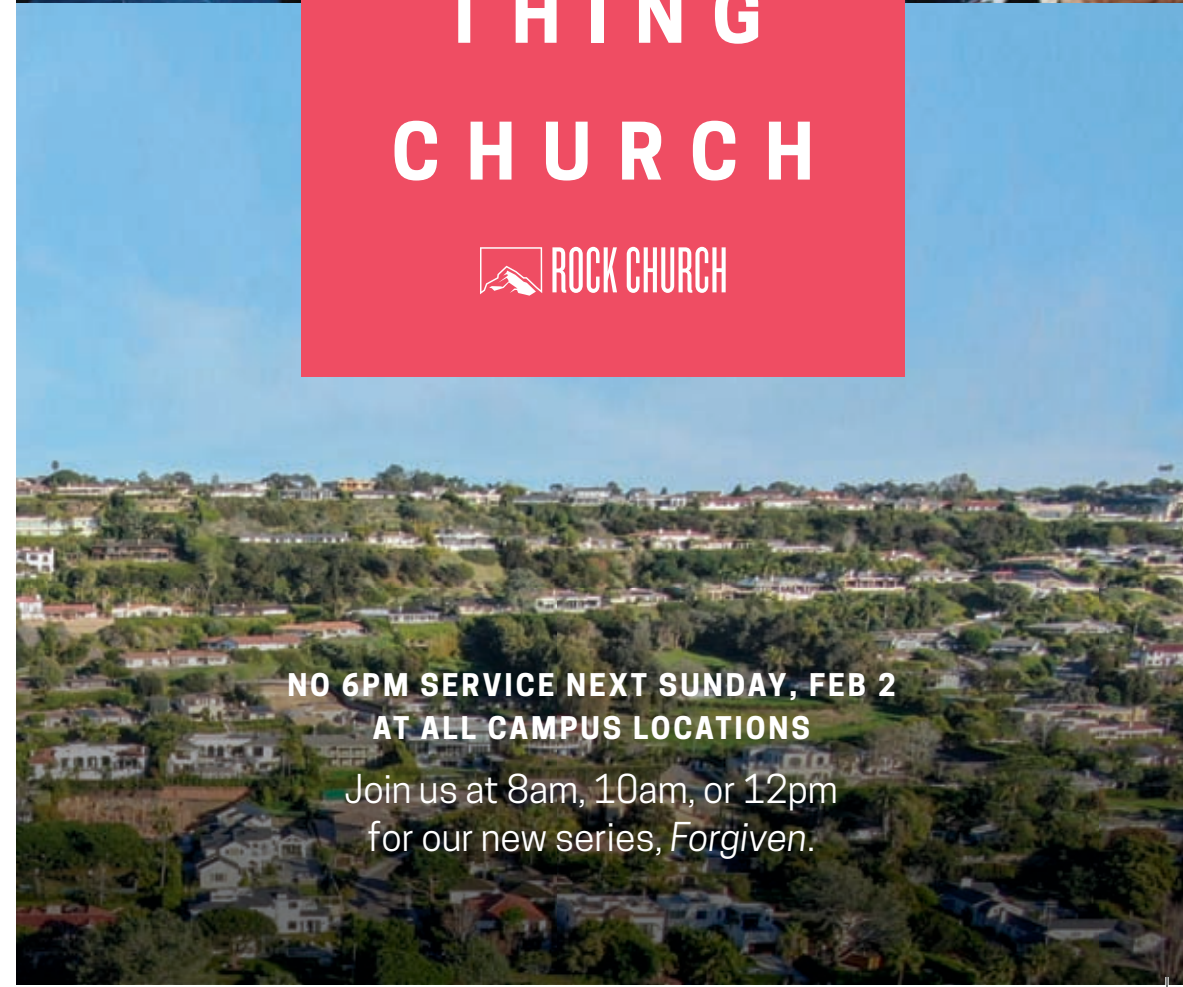

Now, my job as a chaplain was really two-fold. I was to comfort friends and loved ones with prayer and encouragement. And, to corral the loved ones by keeping them engaged so that they did not, in their anxiousness to know everything, get in the way of...

JESUS HAS CALLED US TO BE DISCIPLES WHO MAKE DISCIPLES. MATTHEW 28

If you want to be more like Jesus, examine what He did. He spent time with His disciples so they could learn from Him how to share the gospel, love, pray, and walk in kingdom power.
