

SENIOR PASTOR, ROCK CHURCH

Miles McPherson

A former defensive back with the San Diego Chargers, Miles is the Senior Pastor of Rock Church and author of The Third Option: Hope for a Racially Divided Nation, which explains that we must learn to see people not by the color of their skin but as God sees them—humans created in the image of God. Pastor Miles is also the founder of DoSomethingChurch.org, a vibrant affiliation dedicated to establishing pervasive hope in communities through proactive community service.

FEATURED STORY

LIFE UNDONE

How Rock Financial Life rescues one woman’s future

BY SUSAN WARREN WITH DAVE FRANCO

“I don’t love you anymore,” he said. I stood stunned, not sure I heard him correctly.

“What did you say?”

At the moment my head was reeling, and I wasn’t sure that my legs and body weren’t reeling as well. When your husband of 35 years tells you that nearly everything you base your life on no longer exists, it is a blow to every inch of your world.

As our breakup began to roll out, and my home was being taken from me, and I had no money of my own, I had to stay with my sister to keep from being homeless. Truth is, I was homeless, I just didn’t live on the streets.

But it was in the course of many phone conversations and visits with my therapist that I began to reveal something that rather startled her. I didn’t know anything about finances, and more horrifying still, through the course of my marriage to Ben, I didn’t know one thing about my own household finances; not what my husband made, or where it was, or how many accounts or investments we had. That is when she told me about Rock Financial Life (RFL). Even though in my divorce settlement, I would likely have access to much of the money that my husband tried to hide, I still had to live the rest of my life. If I was going to have a chance at making it to the end not broke and...
