

SENIOR PASTOR, ROCK CHURCH

Miles McPherson

A former defensive back with the San Diego Chargers, Miles is the Senior Pastor of Rock Church and author of The Third Option: Hope for a Racially Divided Nation, which explains that we must learn to see people not by the color of their skin but as God sees them—humans created in the image of God. Pastor Miles is also the founder of DoSomethingChurch.org, a vibrant affiliation dedicated to establishing pervasive hope in communities through proactive community service.

FEATURED STORY

KOBE AND THE ABC OF TRUE SECURITY

BY PASTOR MILES MCPHERSON

When Martina Navratilova was given the opportunity to offer her thoughts on the passing of Kobe Bryant, she said, "Few athletes transcend their sport. Fewer athletes, yet, transcend sport itself. Kobe was one of them."

If there was anybody who made it to near deity status among athletes—among personalities, it was Kobe Bryant. He wasn't just heroic—heroes come and go. Kobe's crazy talent, records, championship rings and banners, MVPs, intensity, confidence, will to win, smile, and effervescent personality elevated him to a place somewhere in the stratosphere—a place from which he never came down—much like his flights over stupefied defenders. At just 41, with another whole half of his life to live, and in the prime of his health, he was creating legacy by overseeing his MAMBA foundation that promotes athletic excellence from LA to San Diego, being a good husband and dad, writing children's books, investing in tech companies, and coaching a girls' basketball team. For all of his hard work and accomplishments, Kobe amassed not only love, respect, and awe from people around the world (news of his death was reported on front pages across the globe), he also amassed a fortune somewhere in the neighborhood of $600,000,000. If anyone was enjoying security, it was him.

And yet, he was as vulnerable as you or I. Each one of us looks at the week ahead and makes plans, fully expecting to ☒

JESUS HAS CALLED US TO BE DISCIPLES WHO MAKE DISCIPLES. MATTHEW 28

If you want to be more like Jesus, examine what He did. He spent time with His disciples so they could learn from Him how to share the gospel, love, pray, and walk in kingdom power.
