FEATURED STORY

TENFOLD

PART TWO

A miracle in the lobby of Rock Church

"Hi, son," his dad said.

"Pop," Marvin said with a stunned stare. "What are you doing here?"

"There's a new state program that got me out. They're keeping me in a converted hotel in Point Loma."

"How did you get here?"

He shrugged. "I walked." They looked at each other some more. "Something told me to come to this church," his dad said. "And then your lovely fiancé noticed me."

"So you didn't know this is my church?"

"I had no idea."

Finally, Marvin slowly stepped forward and with unsure arms, filled them with his dad's shoulders and there, they held each other, both saying nothing, lost in shock. A crowd had gathered. Tears flowed freely.

The next few moments would be critical. Would Marvin be resentfully fueled by countless nights of wondering how his dad could be away from home taking and selling drugs when his little boy needed him? Or would he rest on the love and forgiveness given to him by his heavenly Father, and then offer it to his earthly father?
