

STORIES THROUGHOUT THE YEARS

I'm in the military and just moved to San Diego in August. Because I move around a lot, I'm always having to find a new church which is sometimes challenging finding the right fit. I prayed for God to choose the right church home for me, then I searched for "non-denominational churches in San Diego" and came across the Rock. I watched a sermon online and figured it was worth checking out. Since I started coming here, I've attended LIFE Class, signed up for the Law Enforcement and Military rGroup, signed up for Hospitality Ministry, and recently started classes for PST. I've never been so involved in church, and I've been attending different ones for 18 years! I'm excited for the opportunity to allow God to use me in a greater capacity by loving better and being a blessing to others. Happy birthday, Rock Church! - KEIYA, ATTENDING FOR 6 MONTHS

The Rock has been a blessing in my entire family's lives. When we first started coming to the Rock, my husband, who was my fiancé at the time, was going through a deep depression. The Rock showed him how to connect deeper with God, and he has since then been free of depression. My husband and I have also suffered from infertility and with the prayers Pastor Miles has been praying over the church, we are finally expecting after years of trying! - DESTINEE, ATTENDING FOR 3 YEARS

I met Pastor Miles when I was 15 years old and began attending the first day it opened. My life and ability to stand in the midst of cancer has been due to the various series Pastor Miles has taught. I have been collecting lesson plans for 20 years—there are hundreds of them and each lesson has helped me grow closer to the Lord and strengthens me to walk courageously through a terrible sickness. I have received so much support from the staff, volunteers, and other members of the church. The Rock has taught me how to love my community, to stand in the midst of great pain and adversity, and to use the same comfort God has given me to help others with cancer. The love and support from volunteers and staff help me know that I am not alone and the other members of Rock Church are like family to me. - TAMELA, ATTENDING FOR 20 YEARS
