3. Discussion Questions
   1) God has created a new covenant for us (Hebrews 6:6-10).
      -What is our role in completing the covenant relationship?
      -Are you eating dry bread and drinking lukewarm water? How would your life be different if you lived according to this covenant?

   2) Compare the marriage covenant with our covenant with God.
      -Why do many people find it easier to share their excitement about their marriage covenant but yet keep their spiritual covenant quiet?

   3) Dr. Minnoia discussed the various exchanges that take place when we enter this new covenant with God.
      - What robe or spiritual nature did God exchange with us and what is the significance of this? (2 Corinthians 5:21)
      - When they exchanged weapons they exchanged enemies. If we have God's enemy and He took ours, what does that mean?
      - Belts were exchanged signifying strength. What actions would you take if you truly believed you had God's strength and could not fail?

   4) What is the significance of "The Walk of Death" and when did Abraham take this walk? When was a time in your life that this occurred?

   5) In 2 Samuel 9, David discovers the blessing of a covenant made with whom?
      -How did covenant change David's life and that of another person?

   6) What stood out to you in the sermon?
