Pastor Miles McPherson
The Faithfulness of God

August 29, 2021

Monthly Discipleship Focus for August:
Values making disciples that multiply.

On Sunday, Pastor Miles talked about resurrection freedom and asked, “What happens when something that was dead becomes alive?” Things are drastically different in our world today as there is so much uncertainty, but God has a plan and a purpose for each one of us.

Read John 11 and respond to the questions or statements listed below:

1. Resurrection freedom acknowledges: God’s LOVE is faithful. (1 Corinthians 10:12-13, John 11:1-4) When you go through a trial, the devil intends to put you in bondage to lies. Share one recent trial that God has brought you through.
2. Resurrection freedom acknowledges: God’s WAYS are faithful. (John 11:20-22, 32-37) God’s ways, timing, and method are not our ways, timing, and method. When bad things happen, we can’t blame God, but we can look for the good that will come out of it. God’s going to love you through people and circumstances. Who are the people in your life that pray for you?
3. Resurrection freedom acknowledges God’s PROMISES are faithful. (Joshua 1:8-9, 2 Corinthians 1:20, James 1:2-5, Hebrews 13:5-6, Romans 8:11) Don’t fill your head with fear, but with the Word of God. The promises of God are “Yes” and “Amen.” Share your favorite scripture with your group.

This Month’s Memory Verse from Matthew 9:37 NKJV

“Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few.”
