Monthly Discipleship Focus for May

Demonstrates a commitment to a Spirit-filled expression of my gifts

In this message, Pastor Darren explains that if our lives are not pointing people to Jesus, we need to assess ourselves and make adjustments..

Based on the broadcast message, read the scriptures then review the following statements and questions below, and briefly respond accordingly.

- Read Matthew 5:13-14. Question #1: Is your life causing people to want to KNOW Jesus? When people take a look at your life or actually come in contact with you, are they drawn in and seem like they want to know more about you – yes or no?
- Read Matthew 9:9-13. Question #2: Is your life causing people to want to FOLLOW Jesus? You may be the only Bible resource that some people read. Do you find it easy or difficult to invite someone to come to a church service or attend a church event with you?
- Read Matthew 7:1-5. Question #3: Is your life causing people to LOVE like Jesus? We form conclusions about people based on their appearance, even when a word hasn't been spoken between you. What should you do once you judge someone – learn to love them where they're at or treat them poorly regardless of how they are treating you?
- Read Matthew 5:15-16. Question #4: Is your life causing people to LIVE for Jesus? We want our lives to be a good representation of God's promises. Our light should bring direction, safety, and growth. This week, try to practice more positivity and grace with others and see how your attitude affects the environments you are in and the people whom you are around.
