Do You Remember
September 11, 2022

In this message, Pastor Travis reviews the story of Jesus reminding the apostles who He is, to speak to us about the importance of remembering the faithfulness of God.

Based on the broadcast message, read Mark 8:14-21, review the following statements and questions below, then briefly respond accordingly within your group:

1. Remember what God has GIVEN you (Mark 6:36, Luke 16:10). The BREAD. Often times we don't realize how blessed we are until we take inventory of our lives. Name just one good thing God has already given you (family, spouse, job, home, purpose, etc.).
2. Remember how God BRINGS the blessing (Mark 6:41, Psalm 66:10). The BREAKING. Stop looking at the lack in your life. God is in the business of molding, shaping, and breaking, trying to make diamonds out of your life; but you've been resisting the heat and pressure. Briefly share an instance where you were taken out of your comfort zone then were blessed by the results.
3. Remember what God has ACCOMPLISHED (Mark 6:42-44, Joshua 4:4-7). The BASKET. What He did in your life, He can do it again. God is real. Put your business, your marriage, your job, your relationships, in His hands. Give a real life example of something God has done in your life that you know without a doubt was because of Him.

September Memory Verse – Psalm 48:14 (NKJV)

For this is God, our God forever and ever; He will be our guide even to death.
