

Abraham, Father of Faith
The Ultimate Test of Faith
Genesis 22
May 23, 2004

Both Isaac and Jesus:

Were to be slain as sacrifices.

Carried wood to their place of sacrifice.

Were dead three days.

Were to be slain by their Fathers.

Were sources of universal blessing.

Abraham's faith prompted immediate obedience.

Abraham's faith was willing to surrender something he loved.

Abraham's faith proclaimed God's plan of salvation.

Abraham's faith was wholehearted obedience.
