

True Religion? Part 5

Islam: Kingdoms in Conflict

Pastor Miles McPherson – September 3-4, 2005

2 Chronicles 7:14

A religion can be defined as a “system of beliefs and practices designed to lead someone into a relationship with the supernatural”. A major focus of many religions is often life after death.

True Religion? is a series designed to investigate how “true” the beliefs and promises are for some of the most commonly practiced religions.

Background of Kingdoms in Conflict:

1. Jews claim to be spiritual descendants of Abraham through Isaac, and Muslims claim to be spiritual descendants of Abraham through Ishmael.
2. Ishmael’s descendants were predicted to live in hostility toward their brothers and the world. They are compared to a wild donkey, and would settle in Northern Arabia.
3. The Q’uran claims to be the only hope for the world, teaches the Muslim to fight the infidel to the death, and that peace can only come through Islamic rule.
4. The Quran’s only guarantee to Paradise is death in battle for Allah.

What can we do?

1. Humble ourselves and repent of our sin.
2. Seek the face of God and pray for:
 - a desire to be holy men and women.
 - our nation to wake up spiritually.
 - muslims to accept Jesus as Savior.
